What is God's name?

A Christian man had just died and was on his way to heaven. When he got to the gates of heaven he met an angel. The angel asked him what God's name was.

'Oh that's easy,' the man replied, 'His name is Andy.'

'What make you think his name is Andy?' the angel asked incredulously.

'Well, you see at Church we used to sing this song 'Andy walks with me, Andy talks with me.'

I talked with Georgia this morning. Her understanding is that her service to Borger ended on April 30. Therefore the church has no obligation to her from that date on. COM (through Don McDonald) will talk with the session about how to proceed into the future.

E-Mail from Don Shepherd:

Our phone number was changed a few weeks ago and I forgot to send the new one to you to put on file. Please do so as we have missed out on some news of dear friends recently.

Hope you are well and still enjoying the work there. We did hear that Georgia is no longer able to preach, so know that puts some strain on everyone.

Notes from the Music

Department

June is busting out all over!! Cool weather is gone and the heat is on!! Let us keep all our neighbors in our prayers after the devastation of tornadoes and wildfires.

There will be no Choir practice for June. We will not be having any practice for the summer. We will have a choir on the Sundays that we have enough members and have an anthem. But on the Sundays that we do not have a choir, we will have some kind of music in the anthem spot.

The Opening Response for June will be "There's Something About that Name." The Closing Response will be "Amen," page 587 in our hymnal. The Opening Response will be an insert in the bulletin.

We keep Malnor Arthur, Jim Farrell, Scott Glenn, Alice Harvey, and Hal Hebermehl in our prayers as they continue to deal with health issues. We pray for continued strength and healing for all those mentioned and for all our church family. We always hold all our members, past and present, in our thoughts and prayers.

The Lord bless you and keep you all safe as we travel about this world.

Love and Grace - Pat Petty and Choir

Closing sermon words

A preacher was completing a temperance sermon: with great expression he said, "If I had all the beer in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river." With even greater emphasis he said, "And if I had all the wine in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river."

And then finally, he said, "And if I had all the whiskey in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river."

He sat down. The song leader then stood very cautiously and announced with a smile, "For our closing song, let us sing Hymn # 365: "Shall We Gather at the River."

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will up hold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Isaiah 41:10

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.

Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
